

ACADEMIC EXCHANGE PROGRAMS
SPONSORED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

The U.S. Embassy in Madagascar is now accepting applications from Malagasy and Comoran citizens for the following programs:

Fulbright Junior Staff Development (JSD) Program:

The Fulbright JSD program funds two years of study towards a Master's degree in all disciplines at a U.S. university. Candidates who hold a 4-year university degree or equivalent are invited to apply.

Fulbright Science and Technology Program:

The Fulbright Science and Technology program funds PhD (Doctoral degree) studies at U.S. universities to talented candidates who demonstrate unique aptitude and innovation in scientific fields. Applicants who hold a Master's degree or equivalent in any science discipline are invited to apply.

African Research (Non-US) Scholar Program:

Awards are made each year at the post-doctoral level to enable senior scholars, faculty or administrators to pursue research in all academic fields including HIV / AIDS or program and curriculum development for three to nine months at a U.S. institution.

Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program:

Mid-career professionals, who demonstrate the potential for leadership and a commitment to public service, are invited to apply for a fully-funded one year program for non-degree study at U.S. academic institutions in selected fields; prospective fellows should have minimum of five years of professional experiences, a 4-year university degree and an interest in the policy aspects of their field of specialization.
